receiving the French President is yet to be decided, the sources in the Prime Minister's office (PMO) said.

"The Prime Minister Narendra Modi's Chandigarh visit is confirmed but his itinerary is being finalised," a senior officer at the Prime Minister's Office said, while adding that it will be decided by Monday.

French President Hollande had expressed his desire to visit Chandigarh, one of the few planned cities in the country, designed by famous French architect Le Corbusier in the 1950s and 1960s.

The French Ambassador to India and an advance team of senior officers of the French Government had recently visited the city in preparation for the President's visit proposed visit.

Meanwhile, the preparations are in full swing and security arrangements are being worked out for the French President and Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

However, the UT Administration is yet to receive an official confirmation of Modi's visit. "We are still awaiting a formal communication," UT Adviser Vijay Kumar Dev told The Tribune.
